Court Returns Arkansas To Racial Spotlight

Appellate Judges Hold Integration Must Be Resumed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The integration spotlight centered on Little Rock and Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas today, just as it did almost a year ago when violence erupted around Central High School.

But this time the immediate reason was a court decision, not nine Negro pupils attempting to attend classes.

The 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis Monday overruled a district court and ordered resumption of integration at the troubled high school.

Several Southern spokesmen described the ruling as a tragic and unhappy one and an indication that the court felt integration was more important than education.

But Judge Martin C. Matthews of St. Louis wrote in his majority opinion that "the time has not yet come in these United States when an order of a federal court must be whittled away, watered down, or shamefully withdrawn in the face of violent and unlawful acts of individual citizens."

The decision legally left the way open for Negroes to return to Central High Sept. 2, but steps were being taken to prevent this.

Faubus was expected to call a special session of the Arkansas Legislature next week. At the same time the Little Rock School Board said it would make every effort to keep in effect U. S. Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley's order for a 2½-year delay in integration.

The board could ask the appeals court for a stay pending a review by the Supreme Court. If the stay is granted, Lemley's order could continue in force after the start of the term. The board also could ask the Supreme Court for a stay, but the high tribunal's regular term does not open until October.

Sen. Richard Russell (D-Ga.) said he believed it would be futile to carry the ruling to the Supreme Court.

"This present court has decided that integration is much more important than education despite the grim lesson of Little Rock," he said.

Said Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark): "It is rather tragic that the Circuit Court of Appeals has wholly disregarded the welfare of both races, and the will of the people in overruling the decision of the District Court."

Sen. John Stennis (D-Miss.) declared that "if the Supreme Court upholds this decision, it is unmistakably adopting a course of rule or ruin as applied to public education in the South, and it will result in rule or ruin."

In Norfolk, Va., Monday night, the Norfolk School Board denied the application of 151 Negro pupils seeking admission to the city's white public schools.

The board pointed out that racial conflicts have occurred in areas where some of the Negro pupils sought schooling and expressed belief integration would renew such conflicts.

The board's announcement came shortly after two justices of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals had granted an injunction until Oct. 15 restraining the board from carrying out its assignment plan. The board's action was taken prior to receiving official notification of the injunction.

In North Carolina, the Winston-Salem school board assigned three Negro children to white schools and rejected applications from five others.

High Court Asked To Boot City Judge

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An action to unbench Municipal Judge Frank R. Franko of Youngstown was filed in the Ohio Supreme Court today by Atty. Gen. William Saxbe.

The "quo warranto" proceeding requires Franko, under indefinite suspension as an attorney, to show by what right he remains on the bench.

The Supreme Court suspended Franko last May 28 for violation of the canons of judicial ethics by seeking the post of Mahoning County prosecutor while a judge and for voiding parking tickets issued against him.

Franko, 38, has until Oct. 2 to carry out his expressed intention of appealing his suspension to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Saxbe asserted that "Franko's disbarment constitutes grounds for ouster from office" because statute requires a municipal judge to maintain his standing in the legal profession.

Biggest Sub Ready for Launching

THE ATOMIC-POWERED, twin-reactor USS Triton, biggest submarine ever built, poised at her launching ways at the Groton, Conn., shipyards prior to her christening. The Triton will act as scout for high speed carrier task forces when she goes into commission next year.

4 Persons Die As Boulders Smash Auto

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — A woman and her two young sons were killed Monday by two-ton boulders from a dump truck that hurtled down a hill. The truck driver also died.

The woman's husband and daughter were injured. Both were reported in fair condition at a hospital.

One boulder smashed the automobile of Harry Jacobs, 31. Two others crushed his wife Estelle, 31. She was thrown from the car when it was struck by the truck, police said.

It was not determined what went wrong with the truck. There were indications the driver had attempted to apply the brakes.

The truck careened off the auto, then skidded on its side and jammed between a telephone pole and an iron utility pole. Albert Stone, 40, of Carthage, died in the smashed car.

Jacobs, his two sons, Robert, 6, and Scott, 1, and his daughter, Bonnie, 4, were trapped in the car. Rescuers used cranes and jacks to free them.

Most Ohioans Voted 'No' on Labor, Housing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Most of Ohio's House members voted against the general labor bill and the housing bill, both of which were defeated Monday.

The labor bill went down 198-190. The housing bill was favored 251-134, but as it required a two-thirds vote for passage, it was defeated.

Ohio Republicans against the labor bill were Ayres, Betts, Bolton, Bow, Brown, Clevenger, Dennison, Henderson, Hess, McCulloch, McGregor, Minshall, Schenck, Scherer and Vorys.

Democrats Ashley, Feighan, Hays, Kirwan and Polk voted for the bill while Republican Baumhart was paired for. Republican Jenkins was not listed as voting.

Gore to Keynote Ohio Dem Parley

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—U. S. Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) will key note the Democratic state convention here Sept. 5.

William L. Coleman, Democratic state chairman, today announced Gore's selection.

Walter F. Heer, Franklin County Democratic chairman, will serve as general chairman of the state convention that runs through Sept. 6 in the Dresher Hilton Hotel.

Robert N. Gorman of Cincinnati, former State Supreme Court judge who sought the gubernatorial nomination last spring, will be chairman of the state convention's platform committee.

He will preside at public hearings on the platform next Thursday and Friday in state headquarters. The platform draft will be submitted to the convention for adoption.

Rickover Lauds New Type A-Sub

Big Underseas Capital Ships Predicted Ahead

GROTON, Conn. (AP) — Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover said today that the giant atomic submarine Triton will show the way for building big capital ships to travel under the seas.

His prediction was contained in a congratulatory message sent the builders of the Triton, which was poised for ceremonial launching today.

The monster sub is the largest ever built. Officially listed at 5,900 tons, it will displace almost 8,000 tons when fully equipped and ready for trials early next year.

It will serve primarily as a floating and submerging distant warning station to sound alarm of approaching enemy planes or cruise-type missiles.

The Triton will be the first submarine to be powered with two atomic engines. They are being built by the Knolls Laboratory of General Electric.

The high shaft horsepower developed by each of the reactors is substantially above that for reactors in any present atomic submarine.

The reactors use a fuel element shaped like twisted ribbon. Other features include a method for loading new fuel into the reactors without extensive removal of equipment—which company experts claim will mean a cut of about four weeks in the time presently required for the job.

The Triton will be able to take aboard fuel replenishment while anchored out, instead of brought in to docks.

The 447-foot long tube of steel, 37 feet in diameter at its widest point, towered about 60 feet above the cradle upon which she rested. Unlike the smaller attack type nuclear submarines, she is a double hulled boat, with a streamlined outer hull over an inside, pressure hull—a method used in conventional submarine construction.

Plowing under water at a depth of 250 feet, the transpolar submarine sailed Monday from Portland, England. The boat is due next Monday.

Larry Syferd Flown to Kansas City Doctor by Unseen Friends

Hams Give Paralyzed Greenfield Buddy Hope

GREENFIELD — (P)—High in the air over the Midwest, along the private wave-lengths of scores of ham radio operators, the news is traveling of Larry Syferd and his great new hope.

Syferd, a 26-year-old bedridden paralytic for the past nine years, left here by plane for Kansas City and a visit with a doctor who won't disclose his name but who thinks he might make Syferd walk again.

If he does, Syferd can thank a fraternity of fellow ham operators, people who know the block. All of them except babes in arms kept a noisy, mobile look-out all day for the Conneely clan. Many mothers and a few fathers watched too.

At 5:12 p.m. the station wagon of accountant Conneely appeared and was quickly engulfed by 40 to 50 kids, all screaming.

Conneely finally got the idea. He was to drive around the block and come in the other way, the way they'd been expected, so they could see the banner flung across the street saying, "We Missed You All."

Hanging from the house was another: "Welcome Home Happy Honeymooners."

That was a joke. Beneath it caricatures of Mr. and Mrs. Conneely and their seven children—Joseph, 14, Dan, 12, Kathy, 10, Kevin, 9, John 7, Terry, 3, and Tim, 13 months.

New Farm Bill Is Sent to White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — A farm bill that got rush treatment was White House-bound today amid predictions it will be signed by President Eisenhower.

Chairman Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) of the Senate Agriculture Committee said he was reasonably certain Eisenhower would sign the bill, which the Senate passed by voice vote Monday night. The House passed it last week.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson, who supported most of the bill's provisions, indicated earlier that the President would sign the measure if it gained passage.

The measure would prevent a sharp cutback in planting of cotton and rice, allow corn farmers to rid themselves of all planting controls, and extend for three more years a subsidy program for domestic wool growers.

Another provision — which the administration especially likes — would permit lower government price supports on cotton, rice, corn and other livestock feed grains.

Benson said in a statement that it was his understanding Congress would act on two other pieces of farm legislation before it quits.

One would extend the farm surplus disposal law for two years with 3½ billion dollars in additional authority for overseas sales and gifts of farm surpluses.

Benson said the second bill was one pending in the Senate calling for state participation in aid programs for farmers hit by natural disasters.

Nautilus Heading Home Under Water

ABOARD USS NAUTILUS AT SEA (AP)—The atomic submarine Nautilus moved steadily toward the United States at more than 20 knots today, returning home for a hero's welcome.

Plowing under water at a depth of 250 feet, the transpolar submarine sailed Monday from Portland, England. The boat is due next Monday.

Social Security Benefits Increased by Congress

Business Hit For Bill Defeat

Labor Controls Fail To Get OK in House

FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP) — Several labor union chiefs said today business interests helped sink a labor control bill in Congress to push for sterner measures next year.

The House of Representatives Monday killed a Senate-passed labor bill, apparently ending the last chance for such legislation at this session.

AFL-CIO leaders, meeting here, had urged its passage, saying they believed the interests of the public and "the decent element in the labor movement and management" thus would be served.

In the wake of the House action, various AFL-CIO chiefs put major blame for defeat of the bill on the National Assn. of Manufacturers and U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

These members of the labor federation's Executive Council said the same management groups likely will seek stronger legislation next year — legislation that, from labor's viewpoint, would hamstring unions.

A somewhat similar charge was voiced by Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-N.Y.), a cosponsor of the Senate bill killed in the House. Ives said a lot of House members "were misled by false propaganda" from the NAM, the Chamber of Commerce, the American Retail Federation, the Teamsters Union and the United Mine Workers.

The bill among other things would have required detailed reporting to the government of union finances. It also would have required secret balloting for union officers and would have limited their terms.

In commenting on the House action, Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, said: "The unholy alliance of the NAM, reactionary Republicans and (Teamster President) Jimmy Hoffa's gangster cohorts have done a great disservice to the American public and to the labor movement."

Woman, 78, Hurt In Ladder Fall

A 78-year-old woman suffered undetermined injuries at 12:30 p. m. Tuesday when a ladder collapsed as she was picking plums.

The victim is Mrs. Elizabeth Dowler, Marion, who has been visiting Mrs. Dora Havens, 724 Peabody Ave. The accident occurred at the Havens home.

Police said she fell about 10 feet.

Taken to Memorial Hospital in an ambulance, Mrs. Dowler was still in X-ray at 1:15 p. m. There was no report on her condition.

THEN, RECENTLY, the radio operators decided to act.

They chipped in $1200 and sent it to their "treasurer," the Rev. Melvin Wentz, a ham operator in Nelsonville. The doctor is charging no fee, but the money is needed to cover hospital costs.

One by one the hams completed arrangements, and finally yesterday Kenneth E. Arnold, a Kansas City attorney, and Lester Dent, a fiction writer from La Platte, Mo., arrived in Arnold's plane to carry Syferd to Kansas City.

The rest is up to the doctor and Syferd.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) The first disappointing failure was all but forgotten today as the Air Force pushed ahead with ambitious plans for the next attempt to shoot the moon.

Two days after the first massive U.S. moon rocket exploded 77 seconds after launching, there still was no official announcement on the exact cause.

Divers continued to probe 60 feet in the Atlantic to recover the splintered remains of the first-stage Thor missile 10 miles from the cape.

Moon project officers looked forward to their next try, which probably will come between Sept. 14-17. That is when the moon again will be closest to the earth.

Asia-Africa Plan Readied for U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — An influential group of Asian and African countries prepared today to counter a Western-backed Middle East peace plan with a new resolution calling for the withdrawal of U.S. forces from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan.

Western diplomats insisted they had enough votes to win approval for their own proposal in the emergency U.N. General Assembly. But there were signs they were worried by the new developments.

Informed sources said Secretary of State Dulles had cancelled plans to return to Washington this afternoon.

He conferred with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd this morning and scheduled a meeting with French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville this afternoon.

The United States was understood to be trying hard to win support of five or six Latin American delegates who were holding out against the 7-nation Western resolution, authored by Norway.

The Western plan makes no specific mention of the withdrawal of U.S. and British forces from Lebanon and Jordan.

Lebanon's Foreign Minister Charles Malik opened this morning's debate in the Assembly. He made no mention of the Western resolution. He said there is a deep-seated fear in Lebanon that the very existence of the country is at stake.

"We ask that this fear be allayed," he said.

The resolution introduced by Norwegian Deputy Foreign Minister Hans Engen, with six other small nations as cosponsors, may come to a vote Wednesday night or Thursday. It asks Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to make arrangements which would permit the withdrawal of American troops from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan.

Engen predicted Assembly approval. One Asian diplomat forecast passage with 56 favorable votes and some abstentions in the 81-nation Assembly. But some Arab and Soviet sources expressed belief it would fail to get the necessary two thirds of those voting.

During the year which ended June 30 the United States supplied Yugoslavia with 103 million dollars in economic aid. About 73 million of this was in surplus wheat.

Tito abruptly ended American military help last fall and even spurned an offer to be supplied with spare parts for weapons he had already gotten from this country.

But with the stiffening of Tito's relations with Moscow, the Yugoslavs resumed purchases of parts in limited quantities last February, officials said.

Sleeping Sickness Hits Japan, Korea
TOKYO (AP)—Deadly sleeping sickness—encephalitis—is on the rise again in Japan and Korea, and welfare officials say it may reach epidemic proportions in the next few months.

The Welfare Ministry today reported 352 known cases in Japan this year, of which 42 died. In the past two weeks in south Korea there have been 297 cases reported, of which 71 died.

7 Pct. Boost Gets Approval

Measure Forwarded For President's OK

WASHINGTON (P) — The House completed congressional action and sent to President Eisenhower today a bill increasing social security benefits 7 per cent.

The House, without debate, accepted Senate-passed revisions in the bill.

The chief change from the original House version was a reduction in the amount of federal public assistance grants from 288 million dollars to 197 million.

As the measure goes to the White House for the President's signature, beneficiaries under the federal old age and survivors program would get a 7 per cent increase in benefits in checks going out next Feb. 3, with a $3 minimum monthly increase.

Harvey Andrews New Mayor of Bloomington

Councilmen Fill
Vacancy Left
By Resignation

BLOOMINGTON — A former president of the Bloomington Village Council was appointed mayor by the present council Monday night.

Harvey Andrews, who served as president of the legislative for four of his 10 years as a member of the group was appointed to fill a 1½-year unexpired term.

A retired farmer, Andrews was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Richard Thompson last month.

Thompson, elected last November, resigned July 25 because his work with the construction division of the American Agricultural Chemical Co. takes him away from his home much of the time. Thompson said he felt he could not devote the time needed for the position.

Richard (Pat) Roberts, president of the Council, has been filling in as mayor since July 25.

Social Security

smaller measures by dozens Monday under rules cutting off amendments and nearly all debate.

The loudest and sharpest talk of Monday's long session came in the Senate over the nomination of White, a Philadelphia lawyer, to head the new Civil Rights Division in the Department of Justice.

The nomination, pending since January, finally went through 50-20. Southern senators protested to the last that it was a pay-off to White for his legal advice that President Eisenhower had power to use troops to back up court orders for school integration in Little Rock, Ark.

White, in another Justice Department post, did much of the legal work in that situation. In hearings on the nomination he insisted he only gave advice on what might be legally done as a last resort.

The discussion was heated up by the St. Louis Court of Appeals ruling Monday which threw out a district judge's order allowing a 2½-year delay in Little Rock integration.

The farm measure was sent to the White House on a voice vote by the Senate late in the night. It goes part way—but not as far as the administration would like—toward Secretary of Agriculture Benson's goal of cutting down farm price support levels and loosening controls over production. It heads off a big cut in cotton and rice acreage that would have been required under existing law.

The labor and housing measures were disposed of earlier in the day through House action in killing the bills.

The labor measure, applying new controls on unions but not as tight curbs as some members want, came up under conditions requiring a two-thirds majority for passage and did not even get a simple majority. The count was 190 for and 198 against.

There appeared no doubt it will be both a congressional campaign issue and the center of a hot fight in the next Congress.

There was some talk of trying for housing legislation in a sharply cut form but the adjournment pressure operated against that.

Iran Quakes Kill 135

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Earthquakes in mountainous western Iran have killed 135 persons, a relief worker reports.

CONFIDENT PUP—Buttons, the chihuahua, is so tiny that the neighborhood cats had no respect for him. That is, until his master, Kenneth Lovell, of Monroe, Wis., made this fearless enlargement of his pup and placed it in front of the house. Now Buttons struts around with new confidence.

Deaths, Funerals

Ross Leroy Willis

Ross Leroy Willis, 82, former Ross County grocer, died at 6:30 a. m. Tuesday in the Hurles Nursing Home, 716 Clinton Ave., where he had been a patient for 15 months.

A native of Pickaway County, he had last maintained a residence in Atlanta.

Surviving are two sons, Homer, Chillicothe, and H. Ray, of Dayton; two brothers, Pearl, Willis, Columbus, and George Willis, Long Beach, Calif. His wife, Cora, died 18 years ago.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Thursday in the Parrett Funeral Home where friends may call at any time. The Rev. Orville Streitenberger, pastor of the New Holland Church of Christ in Christian Union, of which Mr. Willis was a member, will officiate. Burial will be in New Holland Cemetery.

Miss Mary Wilson

Miss Mary Wilson, 70, died in Westerville at 11:45 p. m. Sunday, friends here have learned.

She was the sister of Mrs. O. K. Probasco, wife of the former high school principal here. Miss Wilson frequently visited her sister when the latter lived in this city and is known to a number of residents here.

The funeral will be held at Moreland Funeral Home in Westerville Wednesday at 10 a. m. with burial services at Ada where the Probasco family also formerly lived for a time.

Miss Wilson, who worked at the State Library in Columbus for 20 years, retired recently.

Two Injured In Hay Balers

Five Others Receive
Emergency Treatment

Two persons were treated at Memorial Hospital Monday for injuries resulting in hay baler accidents. Five others were given emergency treatment for various injuries.

All were released. Ralph Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hall, Route 1, Bloomington, caught his index finger of his right hand in a baler.

Eugene Lyle, Route 1, Hillsboro, also injured his right hand when it was caught in a hay baler. He was treated for lacerations.

Gary Mickle, 922 Millwood Ave., was injured in a Little League ball game at Wilson Field Monday night. He was batting and was accidentally hit in the side by a pitched ball.

Dale Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Budd Moore, 738 Washington Ave., was treated for lacerations of his left ankle after he fell from his bicycle.

Gary Ivers, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ivers, Route 2, received treatment after he ran a splinter under his fingernail.

Pamela Sue Leisure, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leisure, Route 3, fell on a horseshoe stake and injured her nose.

Ex-Ohio Teller Nabbed in Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP)—Donald Harvey, 23, former teller for the Citizens Savings and Loan Assn. of Cleveland, Ohio, has been arrested by the FBI on a warrant charging he embezzled $16,180.

Mentzer gave his address as Cleveland. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mentzer, Box 46, Phalanx Station, Trumbull County, Ohio.

He was picked up Saturday while hiding in the hills near an exclusive resort hotel at Hana on the island of Maui.

In Cleveland, Thomas M. White, president of Citizens Savings and Loan, said Mentzer had worked there slightly more than one year. The warrant alleges the money was taken between last Feb. 7 and June 13.

For September Is Highest of Year

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio's September Selective Service call was set today at 1,004, highest of the year. The August call was for 973.

The youngest registrant who may be inducted on the September call must be at least 22 years old by Sept. 1. Unless he is a volunteer or delinquent.

The call by counties includes: Clinton 5, Fayette 3, Hocking 3, Pickaway 2, Van Wert 5.

Paul Waner Stricken

OMAHA (AP)—Paul Waner, 53, whose potent bat brought him into baseball's Hall of Fame, suffered a heart attack Monday night. His condition was fair today.

The first airplane flights in Europe were made by Wilbur Wright 50 years ago near the city of Le Mans, where the big French automobile races are now held.

Commissioners Defer Decision On Annexation

Fayette County commissioners, meeting Monday for the first time in two weeks, considered a current annexation petition at an afternoon informal session but deferred any announcement of decision on the issue.

A group of city officials—including councilman and Manager James F. Parkinson—conferred with the county board and were told that several facets of the question would be investigated before final action is taken.

A petition signed by more than 80 freeholders was presented to commissioners May 19, asking annexation of a 3.42-square-mile area to the city. Public hearing was held July 28, and the board then took the matter under advisement.

Crow Hunter Awaits His Day to Crow

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Clint Dailey feels that after he collects his $8 the hard way he will have something to crow about, despite a wild goose chase.

He's claiming that much as a bounty for shooting 32 crows. The law says the clerk in the township where the birds were killed shall issue a certificate authorizing the county auditor to pay the bounty, 25 cents a head.

Dailey shot the crows in Marion Twp. So Monday he started looking for the clerk, with the crow heads in a paper bag. He didn't know the township now is part of Columbus and the clerk's job has been abolished.

City and county officials know little about crows. The sheriff's office directed him to county commissioners who in turn told him to see the city clerk. From there he went to the city attorney's office. William Gillie, first assistant, phoned the courthouse and asked for the county auditor.

The call mistakenly went to the sheriff's office. Gillie, phoned the auditor again and was referred to Asst. Prosecutor Earl Allison.

Allison ruled City Clerk Russell Drake should make out the certificate and send it to County Auditor Fred Dunn.

Dailey expects to get his $8 this week.

Britain Schedules Tests in Pacific

LONDON (AP)—Britain today declared a wide area of the Pacific Ocean a danger area beginning Wednesday for a series of nuclear weapons tests.

A Foreign Office spokesman said the British government notified all foreign diplomatic missions in London.

The spokesman said the area around Christmas Island, the headquarters of Britain's nuclear weapons testing operations, is the same as that closed to shipping in previous nuclear tests.

LAWRENCE PAUL BARRETT

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this newspaper is running a series of descriptive articles on criminals wanted by the FBI.)

LAWRENCE PAUL BARRETT is being sought by the FBI for violation of the Federal Housing Administration Statute for State. It is alleged that he and his wife, Margaret Theresa Barrett, negotiated forged counterfeit documents for Federal Housing Administration (FHA) Title I loans at the Bank of the Southwest, Houston, Texas, on June 19, 1957, and July 18, 1957.

A complaint was filed on Sept. 25, 1957, before a U. S. Commissioner at Houston, charging Barrett with violation of the Federal Housing Administration Statute for making forged and counterfeit documents with the intent that the loan be issued by the FHA.

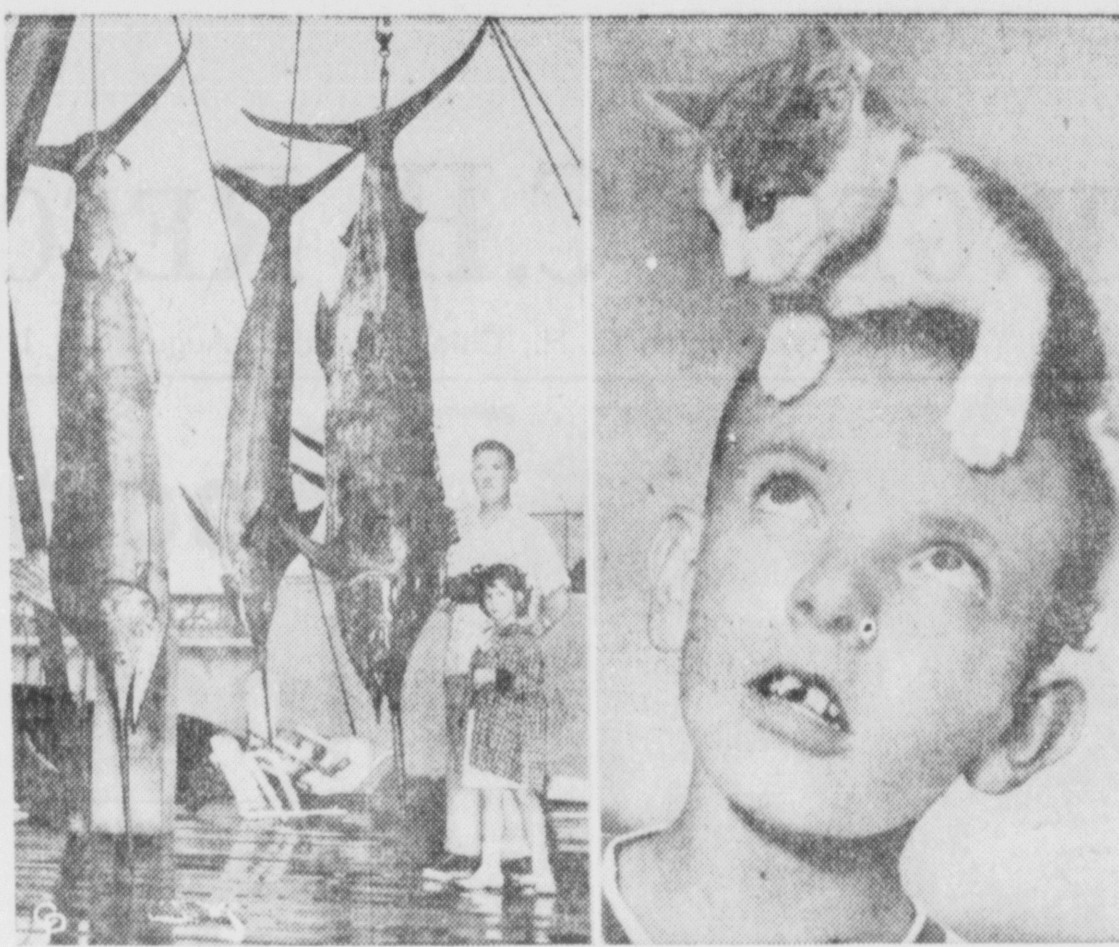

Margaret Theresa Barrett was similarly charged. On Nov. 19, 1957, Barrett and his wife were indicted by a Federal Grand Jury at Houston, charged with violation of the above statute.

The wanted man's aliases include Lawrence P. Barrett, Bastian Ball, Lawrence B. Brennan, Lawrence B. Brennan, Lawrence P. Brennan, Lawrence B. Brennan, Glen P. Chandler, Jack Smith and James J. Smith.

Barrett has been previously convicted for robbery. He had been armed in the past and should be considered armed and dangerous.

FISH AND FUR—Angel Abarea Jr. poses with the three giant blue marlin he caught in five hours of fishing off San Juan, Puerto Rico. With Abarea is his daughter, Isabel. The combined weight of the catch was 836½ pounds. At right, at the other extreme of the weight scale, a tiny kitten perches happily on the head of its apprehensive owner, Eugene Power, at a pet show in Uniondale, L. I., New York. The kitty was named as "Niciest Entrant in the Show" by the judges.

Probers Told Of Kidnap Cash

Greenlease Ransom
Linked to Teamsters

WASHINGTON (AP)—The former wife of Robert (Barney) Baker swore today he once told her that Joseph Costello, St. Louis taxi line operator, "got the Greenlease money, and that's why he tried to kill himself."

"I may get killed for telling," Mollie Baker, divorced wife of Teamsters Union official Baker, told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

The committee had hinted last week that it might produce some sensational testimony about the $300,000 that has never been recovered from the $600,000 ransom paid in 1953 by the parents of young Bobby Greenlease of Kansas City, Mo., who was kidnapped and slain.

Mrs. Baker reeled off a story of links between the underworld and Baker, a top lieutenant of Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa.

At times, she protested at having to answer the questions shot at her by Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel.

It was John Hager, a taxi driver employed by Costello's Ace Cab Co., who gave St. Louis police the tip that led to the capture of Carl Austin Hall, the kidnaper of the 6-year old Greenlease boy.

Hall and his accomplice, Bonnie Brown Brady were executed for the crime, but the police never recovered half of the ransom.

Mrs. Baker described her husband as close to Costello and said "Baker told me Costello got the Greenlease money, and that is why he tried to kill himself."

The committee has been digging into the 1955 disappearance of Dave Probst, an Indianapolis lawyer who had business ties with Teamster officials.

Average Woman Seeks Mink Before Getting Fine Kitchen

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Writer
If women were to Santa Claus, their first request would be for a mink coat, their second a dream kitchen.

This is a well-authenticated conclusion arrived at by Sam Reiner after 11 years of producing prizes for contestants.

Reiner is a pleasant, quiet-spoken man who doesn't look at all like Santa Claus, but gives away a million dollars a year in contest prizes. This year, he says, it may hit two million.

A former brasserie salesman, Reiner decided to set up a business as a contest consultant shortly after he got out of the service in World War II. In the years since he has given away everything from the use of a palace on the Riviera to a mattress stuffed with money.

Says he: "Trends change in American dreams. Ten years ago women wanted household appliances more than anything else. Today the mink coat represents Utopia in the feminine mind."

"Travel is something practically everybody dreams about, and some of the most popular contest prizes are trips abroad for a family of four. Men want high-powered automobiles, particularly sports cars. The whole family dreams of having a swimming pool in the back yard. And boats of all kinds are increasingly popular."

To keep abreast of the trends in the tastes of the public, Reiner makes periodic surveys of housewives, businessmen and office workers to find out what they would ask for if they were given Aladdin's lamp. Through the surveys he has reached some other conclusions.

"Most people would rather have merchandise than money," he says. "For instance, the sight of an $8,000 mink coat is much more exciting to a woman than a check of the same value. Money is something most people expect to get in sufficient quantity just by working. But a trip to Europe is something that isn't within the everyday plans of the average family. Winning such a prize in a contest, for writing a jingle or solving a puzzle, puts life on a completely different, glamorous level. It's an experience they can enjoy and then talk about the rest of their lives."

Iceland Fishing Claim Challenged

LONDON (AP)—A British fishing fleet of 100 boats sets sail this week to challenge Iceland's ban on foreign fishing within 12 miles of its shores. The Royal Navy is sending gunboats to protect them.

Iceland's fishing ban goes into effect Sept. 1 and its government has said any incursion of the banned area would be regarded as an attack on Iceland, a NATO ally.

Britain and other European countries charge that Iceland's order is an infringement of freedom on the high seas.

Saudi Arabian Chief Raps 'Agressions'

CAIRO (AP)—The newspaper Al Ahram today quoted Premier Feisal of Saudi Arabia as saying in an interview that American and British landings in Lebanon and Jordan were aggressions.

Heretofore he has used only such terms as interference or intervention.

Feisal flew home Monday after four days of talks with President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

GI Home Loan Program Seen as Leveling Off

WASHINGTON (AP)—The GI home loan program appears to be leveling off.

The Veterans Administration reported today it received 28,510 appraisal requests during July for proposed housing. Such requests are regarded as an indicator of future GI home loan activity.

This is 119 more than the June requests and 660 below the count in May.

Steels Pace Recovery on Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and selected motors paced a moderate stock market recovery early this afternoon.

Key stocks rose from fractions to a point. A few issues did better.

It looked like a technical rebound to Wall Street analysts who noted fairly steep setbacks of the last two market sessions and the sizable correction of the last two weeks from 1958 highs.

Steels had the advantage of a rising production rate and better demand.

Studebaker-Packard and American Motors were in brisk demand but the major automakers were mixed.

Aircrafts, nonferrous metals, tobaccos, rails and utilities did well. The market was mixed at the start. Trading became very low. Then turnover increased as prices moved forward.

U.S. Steel and Republic Steel were up about a point each. Algonquin Ludlum rose past a point. Lukens was about two to the good. Studebaker-Packard and American Motors added sizable fractions.

American Telephone, Kennecott and Aluminum Ltd. were up about a point.

Lorillard, United Aircraft and International Paper also were one-point gainers.

U.S. government bonds were off slightly.

Reaction from Recent Postage Increases

Probably not as much complaint as was expected has been heard in this immediate locality over increased mailing costs.

To most individuals the added costs won't amount to much - just an extra penny for a stamp now and then.

However, it is being pointed out that to certain kinds of enterprise the cost will be heavy.

One magazine is quoted as remarking "many a publisher will shortly be calling for more aspirin when he revises his calculations on his postal bills." One of the exceptionally large magazine operations expects its annual postage budget to increase by $1,250,000. Cases of this type undoubtedly will mean higher subscription rates in many instances.

Like everything else where increased overhead costs rise, it is expected that postage costs will be passed on to the consumer.

One publication in commenting on the higher postage situation, made this statement and a suggestion for still another step to be taken.

"The reason for increases in postal rates is simple enough. The Post Office deficit has been in the neighborhood of $700 million a year. Postal employees have been given a deserved wage increase. Thus, something definite had to be done to increase Post Office revenues, lest the deficit approach or pass the billion-dollar point."

Unfortunately, however, the increases are confined to three mail categories - first, second and third. This means that a category which has made large contributions to the deficit over the years is still to be operated on a taxpayer subsidized basis. That category is fourth-class mail or parcel post. And, to make a bad matter worse, parcel post competes directly with taxpaying private parcel carriers on the national, regional and local levels of business.

In sum, the next needed step is a revised schedule of parcel post charges, which will honestly meet both the direct and indirect costs of providing the service.

Card Printers Like Laziness

NEW YORK (AP)—America has a 500-million-dollar annual industry built on laziness.

It is the greeting card industry. "It depends completely on the fact people are naturally lazy," said William D. Harris, "and that's why the business is going to last."

"People are going to get lazier and lazier. The greeting card appeals to this flaw in the human race. It saves them the trouble of sitting down and writing a note." Bill, 41, slender, dark-eyed and energetic, is one of the brighter minds in the rapidly changing industry, and helped pioneer the humorous greeting card.

After his release from the Air Force in 1946, he invested all his $3,000 savings in a small greeting card firm. In a dozen years he built it to an annual volume of a million dollars.

"When I started," he recalled, "funny cards accounted only for about one per cent of the business. Mostly it was all hearts and flowers, ribbons and bows, satin and lace. Today 60 per cent of all cards are humorous."

Writing a hit greeting card is about as difficult as turning out a hit song.

Harris puts out some 200 new cards each year. He sifts through tens of thousands of contributed suggestions - "everybody in the country now seems to be writing greeting cards"—but buys only about 25. The other 175 he turns out himself, which makes him one of the most productive men in the industry.

Harris, son of Harry Harris, an old-time vaudeville performer, is an action man when it comes to humor. He has cards that pop, jump, wiggle, smoke and say "Merry Christmas."

Although birthday cards are the best sellers, followed by Christmas and get-well cards, the fastest growing specialty in the field today is the "slam card."

"I resisted the trend for sometime, because I didn't really believe people wanted to send that kind of card," said Harris. "But they do. They're going over stronger all the time."

"One of our biggest sellers at Valentine time is a card that simply says, 'Drop Dead.'"

There is also a big market for the "peacemaker card."

Example: A card saying "Forgive me," which when opened adds "I lost my head." It shows a man holding his head under one arm.

"There is now a specialty card for practically any occasion you can name," said Harris. "There's even a card to send to someone who owes you money."

The greeting card industry is one of the few that doesn't worry about bad times.

"It's a depression-proof business," said Harris happily. "If times get tough, instead of sending each other gifts, people will exchange 10-cent greeting cards."

Russia's Golden Challenge

More and more evidence is coming to light of the keen interest of Soviet Russia in gold, a strictly capitalist metal when monetized or when used as security for money.

The United States went off the gold standard in 1933 but tries to maintain a ratio of 25 per cent of gold to its paper money which has a fluctuating value in some other countries such as Canada.

The United States buys gold at $35 an ounce. Some of that gold undoubtedly comes from Soviet Russia which has large gold deposits, the actual figure not being reported.

While Soviet Russia does not supply ample statistical data of its gold production, it is generally believed to be large and it is estimated that last year, Soviet Russia sold more than 260 million dollars of gold in Western markets which would be principally in London, Amsterdam and Zurich. Switzerland, is reported to be a large depository of Russian gold which can be deposited in Swiss banks anonymously and never traced.

Anastas Mikoyan, who runs the business end of Soviet affairs and who understands the capitalist system and how it operates, particularly money and banking, objects to the American fixed price of $35 an ounce for gold and is proposing that the price be raised.

It undoubtedly occurs to him that the United States is now the largest purchaser of gold in the world but he ignores the fact that we have the option of buying at a certain price or not buying at all.

If we were held up by Soviet Russia or South Africa or any other seller of gold, we might find ourselves taxed by a foreign power to our detriment and even peril.

If gold were bought and sold in a universal free market, the price would find its own level. There are free markets in London and other cities in Europe.

There can be little question but that Soviet Russia plans to monetize a gold rouble at some time not too distant. It is generally assumed that this will not be for home consumption but will be a gold rouble for export, thus establishing a gold standard export currency.

If Soviet Russia can succeed in this, and there is no reason for assuming that it cannot be done, the rouble will become the standard currency for a large part of the world and it could imperil both the dollar and the pound.

At the present time, the American dollar is regarded as the most stable currency and is a universal standard of exchange. A gold export rouble could subordinate the American dollar if it does not have enough gold to support such a position.

With so much of our gold reserve earmarked in favor of foreign powers, this is well within the realm of possibility.

While on one side, Soviet Russia conducts a diplomatic and propagandistic war against us, attacking our capitalist system as evil, on the other side, Soviet Russia is pursuing a strictly capitalist course in attempting to establish a gold rouble to become the foundation currency in world markets.

Under the Soviet system, Soviet Russia does not need a gold currency for domestic purposes. The means of production, distribution and exchange are owned and managed by the government. The government's fiat in the economic field is absolute.

It is therefore doubtful whether a citizen of Russia would ever see a gold coin or whether it would be valid within the boundaries of the Soviet Union. However, by establishing such a currency for foreign trade, Soviet Russia would establish another political device for embarrassing the capitalist countries.

The question arises whether the United States would be able to meet the Russian challenge, when it came, by returning to the gold standard. This could cause an economic upheaval in this country. Money is a dull science and is understood by few. A currency based on gold has a higher value than a currency based on nothing except the credit of the country only because people react more favorably to the gold currency.

It is psychological and traditional. But this psychological and traditional factor translated into economics can be very serious indeed. While it is true that a bad money sends good money into hiding, it is also true that currently the entire world needs a stable, gold - support - currency to end inflation.

Diet and Health Constipation Causes; You Can Correct Them

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

MANY persons mistakenly believe they are constipated when in reality their bowels are functioning in a perfectly normal manner.

They worry simply because they do not have a bowel movement every day. I'd like to emphasize right now that some normal persons in excellent health have movements only every three or four days.

On the other hand, others who also are normal in every respect have movements as frequently as two or three times a day.

Ideal Situation

Generally, though, the ideal situation is for the bowels to move regularly either every day or every other day.

Many things may cause constipation.

An organic disease sometimes is suspected if the patient has not been constipated previously and develops increasing difficulty with bowel movements.

Lack of exercise, improper diet, habitual failure to respond to the urge to go to the washroom, and taking too many cathartics may cause loss of power for the bowel to function normally.

Faulty Habits

If your constipation is due to such faulty habits, your complaints probably consist of lack of appetite and difficult, or infrequent, bowel movements.

Now, what can you do about it?

Well, for one thing you probably can get more exercise. Walking is helpful, especially if you lead a sedentary life.

Be sure to go to the washroom the minute you feel the necessity. To help establish regular bowel habits make it a practice to go to the washroom at a certain period every day. The best time, probably, is after a meal, when you have time to relax and aren't in a hurry to do something else.

Important Realization

It is extremely important for you to understand that you do not necessarily need to have a bowel movement every day. Moderately infrequent movements will not cause any serious consequences.

Try not to worry about anything. I know this is tough, particularly when business isn't going so well, but nervousness and tension do contribute to constipation troubles.

Watch Your Diet

Be sure that your diet contains enough residue to give the required bulk. Fruits and vegetables generally are bulky and you should eat plenty of them. It might be a good idea to eat one or two kinds of fruit for breakfast, along with cereal and an egg, and then have fruit for dessert for both lunch and dinner.

Liquids are important, too, so drink at least six to eight glasses of water each day.

JUST A BRIEF chapter from the annals of Hollywood: A zealous policewoman bagged three frowzy gypsy fortune tellers, herded them into a squad car, and laughed merrily while they predicted disaster for her. The sun shone fiercely through the evidence, a sizable crystal ball—and set fire to both the upholstery and her crisp new uniform. (Our legal expert believes she has grounds for a sibyl suit.)

The Gassman Cometh Back To Hollywood and Movies

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Vittorio Gassman has returned to play a leading role in "The Miracle." Now he is acknowledged as one of Italy's most distinguished actors, whose performances in "Hamlet" and other classics have won international acclaim.

On his last visit here, four years ago, he was known chiefly as Shelley Winters' husband.

She is the vagaries of Hollywood thinking. Possibly because producers thought of Gassman solely in terms of his well-publicized personal life, he got a fast shuffle here. He appeared in four films while under contract to MGM, notably "Sombbrero" and "Rhapsody." None fully exploited his dramatic talents.

"I believe they thought of me too much in terms of a romantic actor," he conceded, "whereas in Italy I had done little of that kind of role."

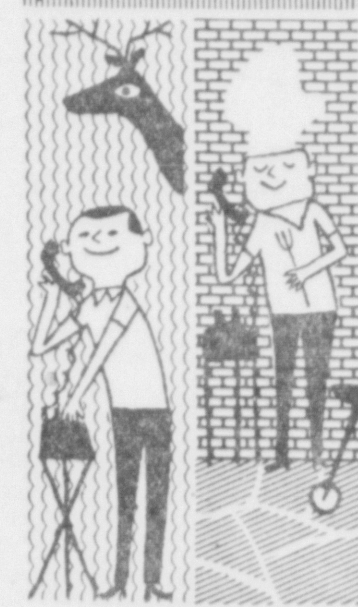

He asked for a release from his MGM contract. The studio agreed, since it was undergoing tough times and jettisoning much of its talent anyway.

Gassman returned to Europe to appear in such films as "War and Peace" and star in his own theater in Rome in a series of classics. He went home sans Shelley, with whom he had a falling out. She divorced him and subsequently married Anthony Franciosa—"At least she's loyal to our race," Gassman smiled.

About show business in his native land, Gassman said it is thriving—except for movies. "The stage is in very good

"modern homes are WELL-TELEPHONED in family living areas!"

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal appeal judges have dealt a shattering blow to attempts in the South to delay or prevent public school integration by mob protests or violence.

Last June a federal district judge in Arkansas, Harry J. Lemley, ordered the integration of Little Rock's Central High School be delayed 2½ years. Monday he was overruled by the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis.

This circuit court not only ordered the integration of Negroes in Central High to continue, but issued a blazing attack on the idea that mob violence could block a federal court order.

The Little Rock school board which had sought the delay of integration, and got it from Lemley, will now appeal to the Supreme Court. But the outcome there seems predictable.

That the Supreme Court will uphold the circuit court and for the same reasons given by that court.

Last Aug. 30 another federal district judge, Ronald Davies, ordered Negro children admitted to Central High. He did this in keeping with the Supreme Court decision of 1954 that segregation in the public schools is unconstitutional.

Davies acted in the face of warnings by Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus that integration there would cause violence and bloodshed. (The school superintendent had said he was convinced integration could be carried out peacefully.)

Faubus then prevented Davies' order from going into effect by using his National Guardsmen to keep Negro children out of the high school. By this time there was mob violence.

He could have used the guardsmen to back up the court order. Since he did the opposite, it became plain that—if he got away with it—any Southern governor could do the same and nullify federal court orders.

So, to preserve the authority of the courts, President Eisenhower ordered in federal troops. Negro children then got into Central High. But the troops were kept there until the end of the school year.

Then in June the Little Rock school board asked Lemley to reverse Davies' order by delaying integration in Central High for a while. Lemley agreed, and granted a 2½-year delay for cooling off purposes.

This was clearly a victory for the foes of racial integration in the schools.

But if mob violence and tension in Little Rock could force a delay in a federal court's integration order, then it could be assumed mob violence and tension could be employed anywhere in the South to get the same result.

But the circuit court, in overruling Lemley, refused to recognize mob violence as an excuse for delaying a court order to integrate a public school.

Judge Martin C. Matthes, writing the majority opinion, said: "The issue plainly comes down to the question of whether overt public resistance, including mob protest, constitutes sufficient cause to nullify an order of the federal court directing the (school) board to proceed with its integration."

"We say that the time has not yet come in these United States when an order of a federal court must be whittled away, watered down, or shamefully withdrawn in the face of violent and unlawful acts of individual citizens in opposition thereto."

"Every school district in which integration is publicly opposed by overt acts would have justifiable excuse to petition the courts for delay and suspension in integration programs."

Meanwhile, the Eisenhower administration's Justice Department has not prosecuted a single person involved in the mob demonstrations in Little Rock in defiance of Judge Davies' integration order of last August.

Why not? The answer given at the Justice Department was that such prosecutions involved questions of whether federal laws had been violated and, further, that the department was deferring to Little Rock authorities to take action.

House Defeats Bill To Levy Labor Controls

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House killed the Kennedy-Ives labor control bill Monday.

Republicans led a protest against the procedure under which the bill came to the floor allowing little debate and no amendments.

The Senate passed the measure two months ago by an 88-1 vote. Aimed at curbing thefts of labor funds and safeguarding the rights of union members, the bill grew out of hearings before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

It was sponsored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Irving Ives (R-N.Y.).

Among other things, the bill would have required the disclosure of union finances through public reports to the secretary of labor.

It also would have required secret balloting for union officers, and would have limited the terms of officers.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

Fayette and surrounding counties are not the only places where rain seriously interfered with the orderly harvest of wheat, oats, barley and hay.

In recent extensive Eastern trip we saw thousands of acres of wheat and oats still not cut, with every indication that they would not be as resulted of excessive rain which so badly damaged the wheat and oats in the head that they are unfit for anything including livestock feed.

In fact, the loss here was small compared to that in some areas, and in Northeastern Ohio, parts of Pennsylvania, and a large portion of New York state the crop damage was even greater than in Fayette County.

We also saw thousands of acres of hat cut and rained on until it was worthless, or else baled and the bales still in the field hopelessly ruined.

In most instances the corn crop appeared good but not as good as in this county, and the unusually dark green color of the leaves was noticeable.

All in all, farmers of this community have been fortunate during an unusually wet season.

OLD BUSINESS FIRMS

Recently I gave you a list of business firms and professional men who carried advertisements on the first page of The Fayette County Herald, of Jan. 26, 1882.

At that time I promised you a list of other business firms, carrying advertisements inside the 76-year-old paper, a miniature copy of which I have in my possession.

"Rest in Peace" was the inscription over a picture of a casket advertised by Boman Hess, undertaker.

"Always to the front and one price to all" was in the Bruel & Co. ad. Henry Robinson was the manager.

J. C. Irvin dealt in sewing machines and carried a small cut of a White machine.

Furtwangler & Hudson "old est. resident watchmakers and jewelers" were forerunners of the C. A. Gossard & Co. jewelry store of today.

Allen Brothers carried stoves, tinware, spouting, roofing mantels, etc.

Cissna and Welton were retail grocers "At Stimpson Bros' old stand."

George Dahl and Son were dealers in "Groceries, queens ware, hardware, etc. at George Dahl's Old Stand", S. Fayette St.

Stutson's Store in the Old Fellows Building, was advertising a clearance sale of fall and winter goods.

The Peoples and Drivers Bank, capitalized at $300,000 had the following officers: President, Daniel T. McLean; vice president, Thomas B. Thornton; cashier, R. A. Robinson; directors, David Rogers, David H. Allen, Macajah Draper, Josiah Hopkins, Aaron Ferguson, Thomas B. Thornton, Daniel McLean.

Then there was the Merchants and Farmers Bank, of which M. Pavey was president and Morris Sharp, cashier. It was capitalized at $100,000.

Those were the only two banks in the city at that time, and possible the only two in Fayette County.

Vandeman and Russell were attorneys with an office in Room 4, Vandeman Bldg.

S. F. Johnson was a coal dealer on W. Court St., and Clungston and Thompson were advertising cut rates in dry goods. They were located "Opposite the Jail."

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Upward of 200 persons were employed in the Sears and Nichols and Fayette County Canning Co. plants, packing sweet corn.

Curtis S. Miller, former Chamber of Commerce secretary here, died in Warren.

The Ohio Bankers Assn. agricultural tour included a stop here for inspecting leading farms.

The champion Duroc boar of the Hugh K. Stewart estate, was sold to Chandler R. Raup, Springfield, for $1,000 probably the top price of any Duroc hog ever raised in Fayette County.

Several companies were seeking locations here for stores of various kinds.

R. R. Dudd, Springfield, was seriously injured when his car crashed into a cut of freight cars at the Baker Wood Preserv. Co. plant on Chillicothe Rd.

A mob with a rope, seeking to lynch a youth who had attempted to criminally attack a small girl in Sabina, was dispersed there by timely arrival of officers. The mayor had fined him $5 and costs and this led to the riot.

Taylor Meade, 3 1/2 years, Wilmington, stowed away on a bus and was found when the bus reached this city.

Several persons were arrested in liquor raids in which many gallons of wine and home brew were confiscated by state agents.

Warning lights on concrete islands in center of S. Fayette and Main Sts., were placed in operation.

Six federal agents were scouring the county in search of European corn borers.

Core Rodgers, prominent farmer, died at 56.

Camp Fire, Bluebird Programs Enlist Many Grown-Up Leaders

A great deal of work, time and energy is needed to make the programs of the Camp Fire and Blue Bird girls a success.

During the past two weeks, more than 100 girls took part in day camps held at the Fayette County Fish and Game Assn. on Stafford Rd. Much planning was done by the different leaders and advisors for these camps.

Mrs. Clark Sheppard, director of the camp and recreation program for the Paint Valley Camp Fire Council, supervised all the work. Leaders of the different groups said that Mrs. Sheppard did a "very outstanding job."

The day camps were the high point of the Campfire year, the time when the skills they learned at their meetings were put into practice. Nature was stressed all during the camps.

THE ADULTS, and the Camp Fire (with English meaning of Indian name in parentheses) and Blue Bird groups, who helped with the camps were:

Ex-Defense Chieftain Fears Armament Race

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP)—Former Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson says this nation's atomic submarine success may not be a good thing if it is considered as part of an arms race.

"If such a feat heats up the Russians some more, it's too bad we did it," Wilson said in a speech here Monday night before a meeting of community organizations.

Wilson, who said he deplored the possibility of an arms race, was referring to the American submarine which went under the Arctic ice recently.

$800 million
in assets...and only
11 years old!

From an idea to an $800 million corporation in eleven years . . . that's the meteoric pace of Texas Eastern's growth.

Texas Eastern was incorporated in January, 1947, to purchase the war-built Big Inch and Little Big Inch pipelines and to convert them to the transportation of natural gas. At the close of its first year, Texas Eastern's pipelines totaled 3,100 miles; its assets more than $156,000,000.

From this start, the company's assets have grown substantially . . . a growth that has taken place in two ways at once: by expansion of its pipeline system, and by diversification of its operations.

Expansions have more than doubled pipeline mileage in 10 years to some 7,700 miles. The company's pipelines now reach from Mexico to New York and Boston and from the Gulf Coast to Chicago.

To help meet insistent demands of winter, Texas Eastern has participated in development of one of the world's largest underground storage pools for natural gas. Gas placed in this pool during the summer is withdrawn as needed when winter comes.

One of the company's first diversification moves was acquisition of Triangle Pipeline Company, a petroleum products system serving East Texas, Northern Louisiana, and Southern Arkansas. In 1958 the company completed the reconversion of a major segment of its Little Big Inch line to petroleum products service. This line coupled with the former Triangle system forms the Little Big Inch Division—a common carrier products pipeline linking the Gulf Coast and Midwest.

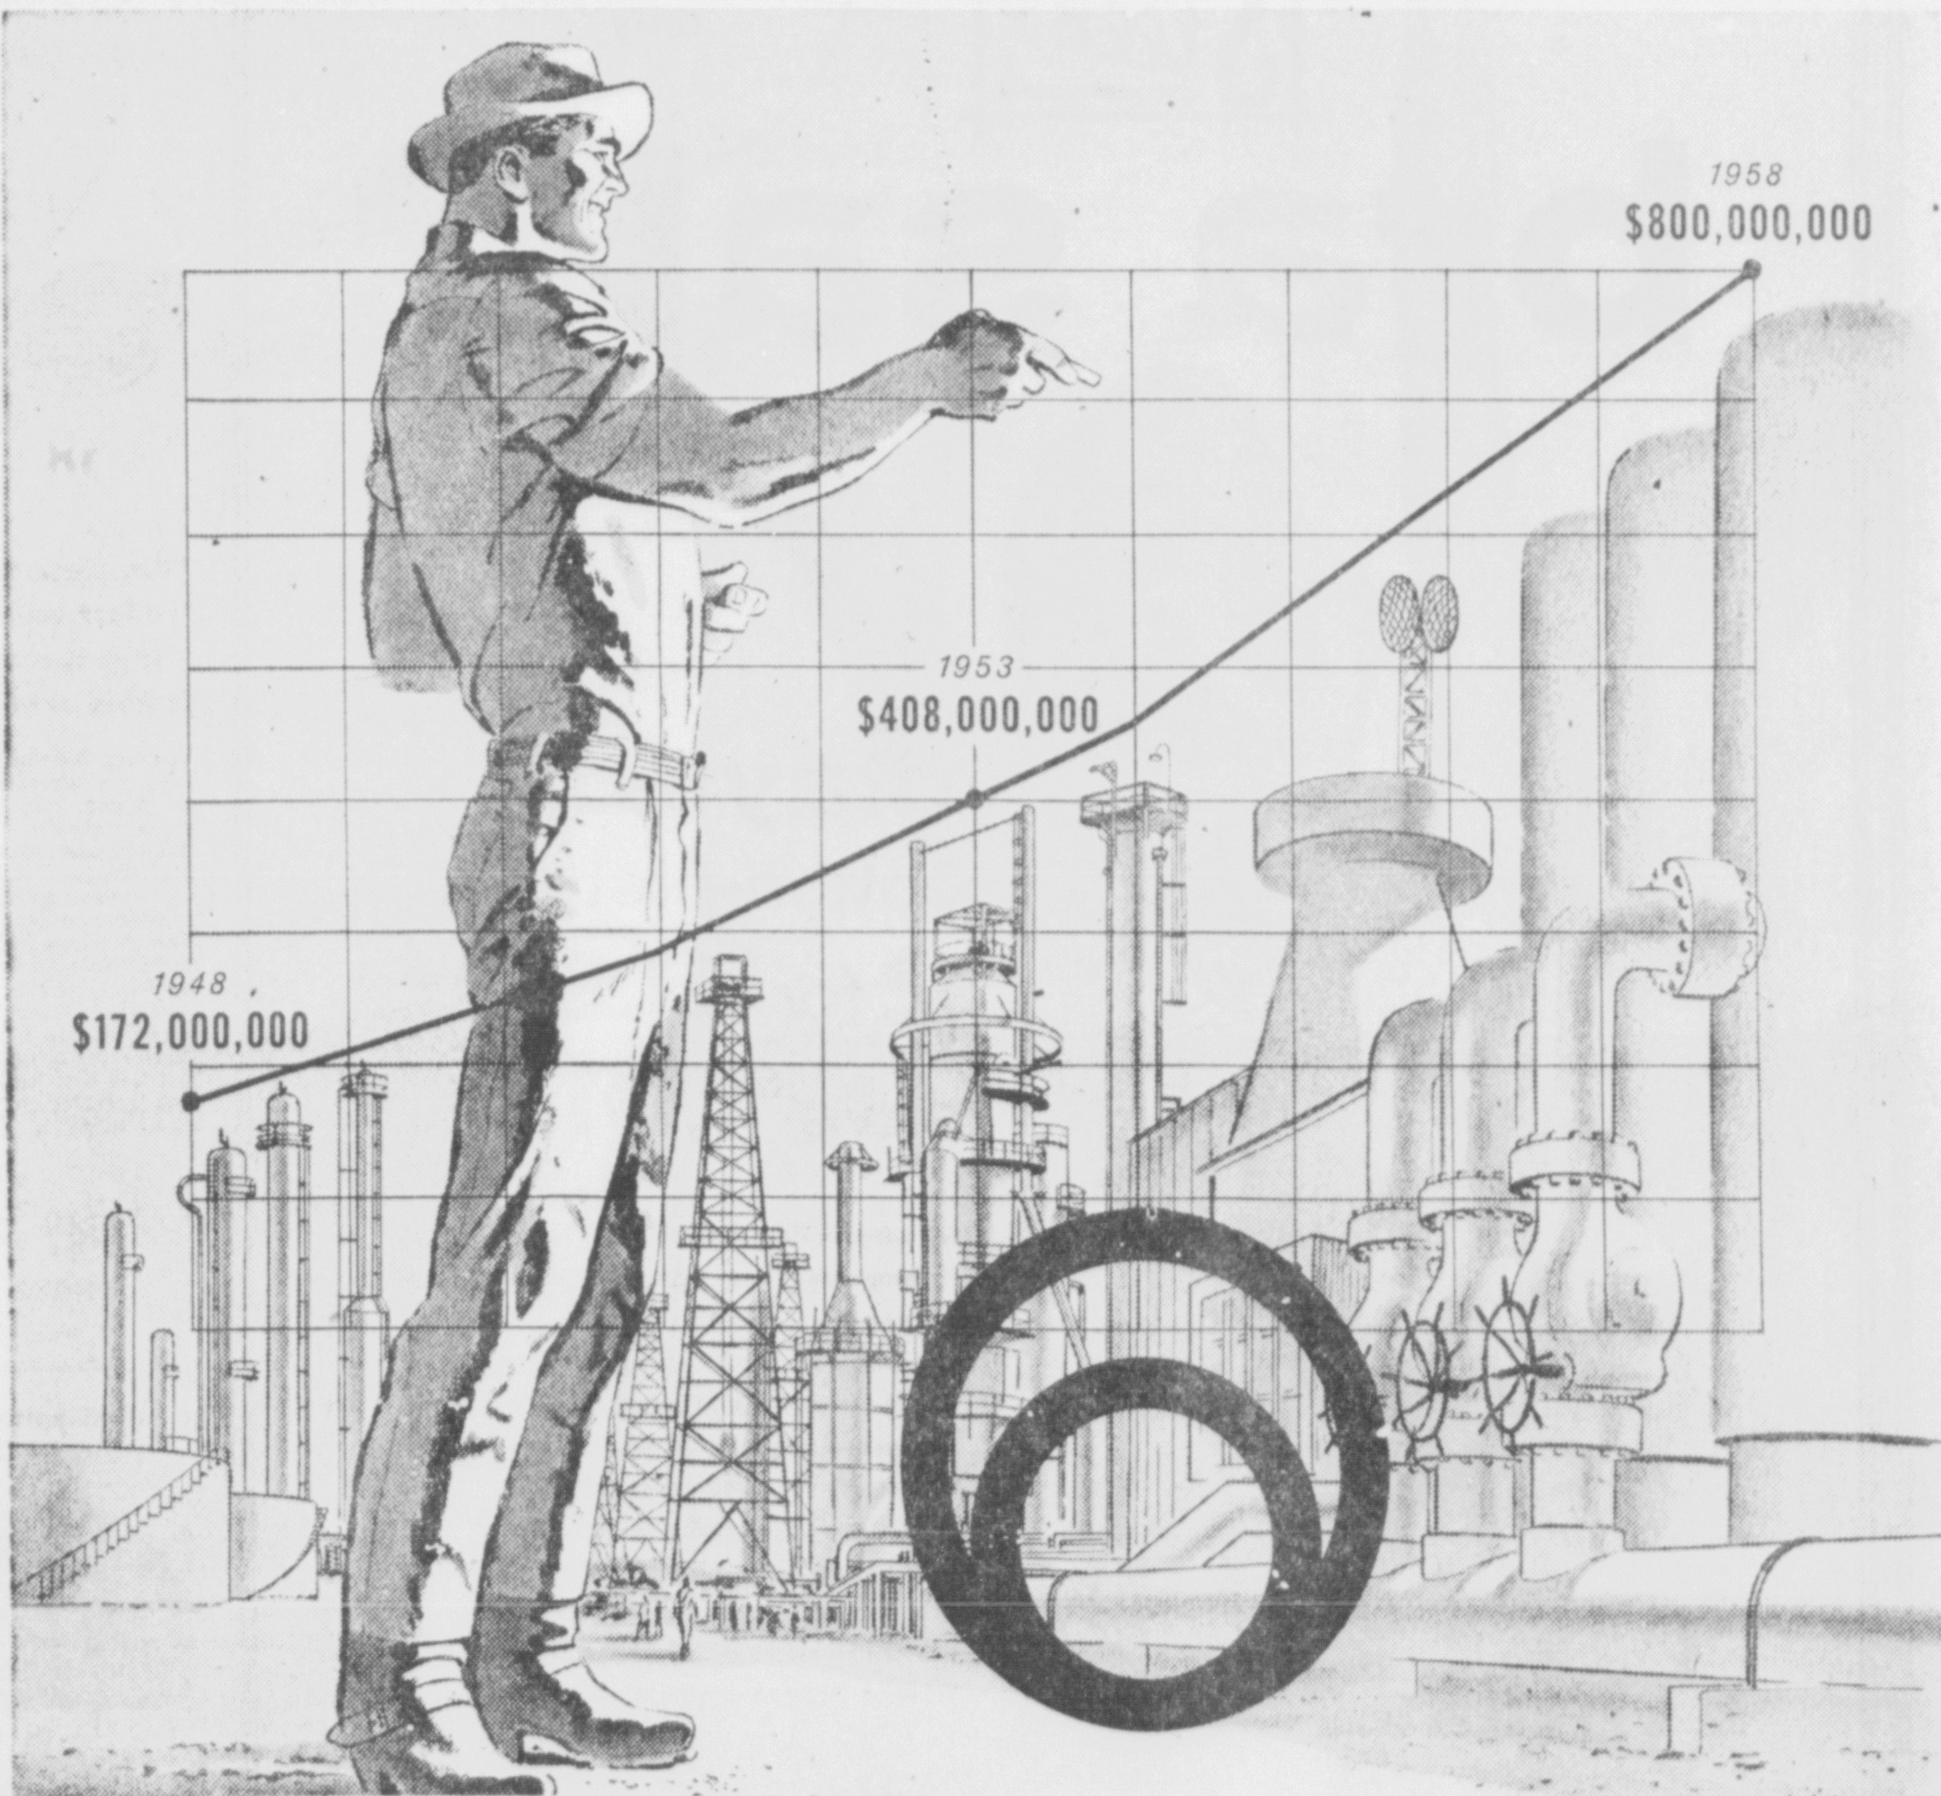

A production division was formed to explore for and produce oil and natural gas and to acquire producing properties. In 1957 the extensive holdings of La Gloria Oil and Gas Company were added to the production division's interests.

In addition, La Gloria, a wholly-owned subsidiary, is owner of one of the world's largest natural gas processing plants and one of the industry's most modern refineries.

Texas Eastern's total assets—as of August, 1958—exceed $800,000,000. Thus, year-by-year, Texas Eastern grows in size and scope of service—the better to serve a nation grown dependent upon natural gas and refined oil products.

Todhunter Family Holds Reunion

Approximately 30 members of the descendant families of Amos, Abner, Alfred, William Penn and John Parker Todhunter, early settlers of southern Fayette County, assembled at Wilson School to celebrate the 30th Todhunter reunion.

After the singing of the Doxology and repeating the Lord's Prayer a basket dinner was enjoyed.

Following the dinner hour, Mrs. Nona Todhunter Feagans, president, conducted the business session. Mrs. Feagans asked the descendants of Amos, Abner, Alfred, William Penn and John Parker Todhunter to stand and give the births, deaths and marriages that had occurred since the last reunion in 1928. She also read and commented on communications received from non-present members, including information regarding the death of Mr. C. Clinton Todhunter (last of the John Parker Todhunter family) who died in California in December, 1957, at the age of 96. Of particular interest was a letter written by a 12-year-old girl who commented on his interests in the schools. He was a member of the school board at the age of 79.

Entertainment followed, with prize winners being Mrs. Naomi Todhunter Storey, Mrs. Ruth Todhunter Stowe and Chris Erwin. The latter also received the prize for being the youngest person there.

Mrs. Stowe, a minister in the Friends Church, gave several observations on the home in early days.

A short candle service was held in respect to deceased members, followed by all singing a verse of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds".

Acting on the suggestion of Mrs. Stowe, it was decided to hold the reunion next year.

The present officers were retained for another year. They include Mrs. Feagans, president; Mrs. Joe Fortier, vice president; Mrs. Jennie Todhunter, historian; and Mr. Willis O. C. Ellis, secretary-treasurer.

Out-of-town relatives enjoying the occasion were from Toledo, Portsmouth, South Salem, Greenfield, Leesburg, Highland, Wilmington and New York City.

Garringer-Springer Vows Exchanged In Good Hope Methodist Church

Miss Joyce Ann Garringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Garringer, of the Miami Trace Rd., and Mr. Raymond Eugene Springer son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Springer of E. Warren St., Columbus, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon in the Good Hope Methodist Church.

The Rev. Ralph Yoss of Columbus performed the double-ring ceremony at 3:30 p. m. before a background of pedestal baskets of pink and white gladioli, and canebars. Huckleberry and white satin bows marked the pews.

Members of the Marilee Garden Club decorated the church for the occasion.

Mrs. Herbert Hoppes presented a half-hour program of organ nuptial music preceding the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white taffeta which featured a lace jacket, long sleeves and a very bouffant skirt. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a half pillbox hat. She carried a white Bible topped with pink and white carnations.

Miss Nancy Rodgers of Good Hope, the bride's maid of honor, wore a street-length gown of pink organza with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The flowergirl, little Miss Connie Waidelich, of Circleville, was attired in a white organza dress and carried a basket of lilies and sweet peas.

Mr. Harry Brockman of Columbus was Mr. Springer's best man. Ushers were Mr. Donald Strouth, Mr. Charles Newman and Mr. Charles Melton, all of Good Hope. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Garringer chose a navy blue and white silk dress with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue suit and white accessories. She also wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held in the new

MRS. RAYMOND SPRINGER home of the bride and groom on the Miami Trace Rd. following the exchange of vows.

Lovely arrangements of pink and white gladioli were placed throughout the home while the beautifully appointed bride's table was centered with a tiered wedding cake.

Mr. Springer attended Central High School in Columbus and is employed by Dennison Engineering in that city.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding and reception were from Columbus, Circleville, Springfield, Greenfield, Leesburg, Bainbridge and Mechanicsburg.

Barnesville Man, 37, Kills His Landlady

BARNESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Officials plan to question a construction worker today about why he allegedly shot his landlady, whom he had been dating, and then tried to take his own life. Police Chief Ray Adair Jr. said.

Miss Betty West, 40, a shirt factory worker, was shot twice with a shotgun Monday night and apparently died within moments, the chief said. The shooting took place at her home in this Belmont County town. She lived with her father and an unmarried brother.

In Barnesville Hospital is the roomer, Clarence (Banty) Anschultz, about 37, who "admitted he shot her twice, once with bird-shot and once with pumpkinnball that you shoot deer with," Chief Adair said. "We probably will charge him with first-degree murder."

Anschutz shot himself with a pumpkinnball and the shot came out below his right eye. He is expected to be in the hospital for about 10 days, Adair said.

Deaf Mute's Death To Be Investigated

MACON, Ga. (AP)—An inquest will be held today to determine whether a deaf mute killed himself or was shot to death at a roadblock by officers seeking him in the slaying of a 7-year-old girl.

Parram Youngblood, a 32-year-old itinerant peddler from Toombsboro, Ga., died in a blaze of gunfire Monday when he slammed on the brakes of a stolen station wagon at the roadblock on a bridge near here and fired at officers.

The gun battle climaxed a mammoth manhunt for Youngblood, who was charged with kidnapping 7-year-old Margie Jones of Melvin, Ky., Saturday night.

The girl's body was found Monday in a field. She had been shot twice in the back with a rifle and apparently had been beaten on the head and choked. She had not been raped.

Sheriff George Hatcher of Wilkes County said the Jones family had been visiting Youngblood and his mother at their home near Toombsboro.

Theodore Roosevelt was struck by a double tragedy in 1884 when his mother and his wife died within a few hours of each other.

Moros Still Live Freewheeling Life

By JOHN GRIFFIN

MANILA (AP)—The Sulu Archipelago, a string of 107 islands spread from Mindanao to Borneo, is one of the last freewheeling wild lands in Southeast Asia. It's a place where fortunes are made overnight by daring adventurers. Men are killed just to get their guns.

Living in these palm-fringed islands are 108,000 persons, mostly Moros—Moslem Filipinos. They are noted for several things: pearl diving, fleet outrigger sailboats with bright striped sails, wavy, kris knives with razor edges and a man's century tradition of piracy and lawlessness.

They have sometimes been beaten down by the Spanish, American and Philippine governments—but never really conquered.

Gen. John J. "Black Jack" Pershing earned his nickname and promotion from captain to Brigadier general for his hard-hitting—but not completely successful—campaigns while governor of the Moro provinces in the early 1900s.

A few years ago, the Philippine government had 3,000 troops, half a dozen tanks, 30 fighter planes, and a fleet of patrol boats hunting Sulu bandits.

Lately things have cooled down some. There are still many killings, kidnappings and pirate raids that sack whole towns. But most Moros have switched from piracy to smuggling. It pays better.

The market in Jolo, Sulu's main island, has offered goods brought in via Borneo—cases of American cigarettes, French perfume, Indonesia batik cloth, machine guns and hand grenades.

The government once made millions of pesos yearly in duty on this trade. Moros sailed to Borneo carrying copra and coconut oil, which was bartered for luxury goods.

Luxury imports were banned in 1956. Customs revenue nosedived and smuggling shot up.

Narrow shallow-draft kumpits, with big sails and twin diesel engines, can run away from clumsy navy patrol boats in the hundreds of tiny bays and inlets around the coral islands.

Fancy Food Business Is Still Booming

Recession Fails To Curb U. S. Taste For Delicacies

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — America's taste for fancy food hasn't let the recession get in its way. Importers of foreign delicacies and domestic producers of specialties say that business today is booming.

They credit record sales volume to two trends: 1. Increasing numbers of Americans go abroad each year and discover new foods they like; 2. Entertaining at home also is on the increase and this usually calls for something special for the guests, whether it originates abroad or in the United States.

Harold Roth, president of the National Assn. for the Specialty Food Trade, estimates that sales here on the specialty food industry, foreign and domestic, will hit a new peak this year in excess of 70 million dollars wholesale. Last year's sales came to 60 million, up 15 million from the previous year, and comparing with 39 million in 1955.

This is only a trifling part of the 75 billion dollars or more Americans spend at the grocery each year but it's one of the fastest growing items on the market list.

Roth says that imported delicacies account for about two-thirds of the total specialty food market. He cites annual imports of 504 million pounds of foreign made cheese, nearly half a million pounds of breadsticks from Italy, not to mention the caviar, truffles, pate de foie gras, fillets of wild boar, canned snails, smoked mussels and prepared pigeons, grouse and partridge.

This nation's production of gourmet foods is growing also. In all parts of the nation are flourishing small businesses using either treasured home recipes or a traditional regional dish.

Store sales of fancy foods are fairly even over the year but pick up noticeably at Christmas time. Food processors of late have taken advantage of this by offering various combinations in Yuletide boxes. This practice has had such success that General Foods, as only one example, will expand its line this fall. Its gourmet foods division plans to add several new items and several new packaged combinations.

In many U. S. cities in the land the plain consumer can find cost of gourmet products on sale. For just one example: In a small section of New York the gourmet can pick up fresh land snails from French Morocco, Yemen coffee, Greek feta (fresh cheese made from sheep's milk), pickled wild onions, sesame-coated bread sticks from Italy, camomile flowers—valued as a spice, some 200 kinds of Italian pasta products, and prosciutto bones from Italian pork for flavoring soups.

Man Feared Slain By Pack of His Own Vicious Dogs

WILMINGTON, Mass. (AP) — Was Christian Loeffler, 57, a recluse, attacked by a pack of vicious dogs he harbored?

Acting Police Chief John M. Imbimbo said today that evidence indicates the unemployed stonemason, a bachelor, might have been killed by some of the 31 dogs he befriended near his shack in an isolated, wooded section.

A group of Boy Scouts on a weekend hike found a skull and leg bones scattered near Loeffler's shack.

Medical Examiner Thomas P. Devlin of Stoneham said the bones were those of a human. Imbimbo believes the remains are Loeffler's. He said that Loeffler had not been seen for more than two months.

I AM SPENDING a few days with friends who live in a house that was at one time occupied by Teddy Roosevelt. Elk, deer and some bear are found here.

However, it is a part of one of the many national forests where cattle are pastured during the summer. I can never quite understand how ranchers get their pasturing rights in the national forests.

AS I SAID in my last "Crop Lines" I left Washington C. H. on Tuesday morning, Aug. 12. Covered 1,338 miles by 2 p. m. Thursday. However one gains two hours time in that distance.

As one moves west, the crop pattern of the country follows the normal rainfall pattern.

Corn through Indiana, Illinois and Missouri. Grain sorghums start in pretty generally as you get half way through Missouri.

and from there on the corn crop gets less and grain sorghums take over. By the time you get through Kansas it's mostly grain sorghum.

Water damage was considerable in the river bottoms—the Wabash, Illinois, Mississippi and Missouri. Twenty-five counties in Missouri had been declared disaster relief areas.

But, all in all, crops looked good.

Patterson Scores 12th Round KO Over Roy Harris

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dissatisfied with his 12th-round knockout of game but outclassed Roy Harris, world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson vowed today to fight his way into sharper form.

His timing apparently suffering from his yearlong layoff, the 23-year-old champion had to climb from the floor to successfully defend his title Monday night against the courageous but sometimes awkward challenger from Cut and Shoot, Tex.

Patterson was down for a three count from a left and right in the second round but bounced up to take command from the next round on. He scored four knockdowns.

With Harris far behind on points and bleeding from a battered nose and cuts near both eyes, his veteran trainer, Bill Gore, asked that the fight be stopped after the 12th round.

"I had it stopped," Gore declared. "The fighter wanted to continue."

"I'm more dissatisfied with this fight than any one I've fought in the last few years," Patterson declared. "If I had been able to get started it might have been a different fight. I know that if both of us had more fights we would have looked a lot better. I'll probably fight more often now."

Stopping the fight, which goes into the record as a 12th-round knockout, brought the first defeat to the picturesquely Texan from the Big Thicket country near Houston. It was the third successful title defense for Patterson, who won the championship in 1956 at 21.

The champion from New York spotted his foe 9½ pounds at 184½ to 194 but landed the power punches. He knocked Harris down for an eight count in the seventh with a right to the side of the head. In the eighth Roy was down for counts of seven and three. He took a nine count in the 12th.

But fans who tabbed the Texan an easy mark and made him a 6-1 underdog were surprised to watch a bristling battle and a courageous showing from the challenger.

At times his unorthodox style in itself served to stall Patterson's attack.

Approximately 20,000 fans watched the open-air battle at Wrigley Field and another 200,000 by closed-circuit television in theaters across the nation.

The gross gate here was estimated at $228,000, the gross in theaters at a million dollars. Harris collects his $100,000 guarantee. Patterson's take, it is estimated, will be more than $200,000.

Patterson's manager Gus D'Amato, still feuding with the Club, announced the champion is committed to a title defense next June in Colorado Springs, Colo. But he didn't name an opponent and he left open the possibility that Floyd might fight in the meantime.

Patterson termed Monday night's fight the toughest of his three defenses. The others, against Hurricane Jackson and Pete Rademacher last year, also ended in knockouts.

Dickerson Handed Red Sanders' Post

LOS ANGELES (AP) — George Dickerson succeeds the late Henry (Red) Sanders as UCLA's head football coach.

The 45-year-old Dickerson, a UCLA alumnus, was Sander's first assistant and handled a great mass of detail for him, including liaison between student-athletes and faculty.

Sanders, eulogized at a memorial service Monday as "an authentic genius," died last Thursday of a heart attack. He was 53. Athletic Director Wilbur Johns, in announcing the appointment Monday, said Dickerson was not hired on an interim basis and that his contract will extend for "more than one year." exact tenure and the salary were not disclosed.

Both Boxers Laud Ability Of Opponent

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Blinking at the dressing room floor from under a towel, battered but gallant Roy Harris said:

"He's the hardest puncher I've ever met. He's a great fighter."

Across the hall in the champion's dressing room, unmarked Floyd Patterson paused from doing situps and said:

"It's the toughest fight I've had since I've been champion. He was very game."

Harris got off the deck four times before his trainer asked that the fight be stopped after the 12th round Monday night.

"I didn't want Roy cut any more," said Bill Gore. "He wanted to continue and yelled 'let me go, let me go.' But I said, 'no, Roy. There'll be other fights.'"

"I never lost my senses," said Harris. "I would have liked to have finished."

"When I knocked him down in the second round I thought I could get him, but I guess I got too anxious."

"I'd like to fight him again — I think I could lick him," said Harris, who surprised the 20,000 fans and the champion, too, when he dropped Patterson for a three count in the second round.

St. John's University has finished second the last three seasons in the Metropolitan College Baseball Conference.

Milt Davis of the Baltimore Colts intercepted 10 passes for 219 yards during the 1957 National Football League.

Brown Plans Using Rookies in Lineup

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—Time is short, but Coach Paul Brown hopes to fit a half dozen rookies from the College All Star camp into his squad in time for Friday night's tussle with Detroit.

"In some ways it's like starting all over again," said the head of the Cleveland Browns. "It certainly delays the preparation."

Quarterback Jim Ninowski, half-back Bob Mitchell and end Jim Gibbons discovered, however, that their time in the All Star camp had not been wasted.

Otto Graham, the former great passer for the Browns, coached the All Stars with some of the same procedures that the Browns use. So in absorbing Cleveland plays they are on fairly familiar terms with the professional techniques.

Robinson Named To Succeed Watts

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Canton Lehman's veteran coach is taking the Canton McKinley grid coaching assignment that has been in the spotlight of Ohio football for years.

Jim Robinson, 59, will succeed Wade Watts at McKinley. Watts announced his resignation Saturday for personal reasons. In his five years, he produced state champions twice, in 1955 and 1956. Robinson has been at Lehman since 1926. It became a senior high school in 1937 and since that time his teams have won 121, lost 51 and tied 9.

Thomas J. Barry set a record at Monmouth Park when he saddled 22 winners.

Night Games Soon At Roszmann Field

There will be baseball under the lights at Roszmann Field this season.

The lights and the poles were set at the field Tuesday. However, the lights will not be hooked up for a few days.

It is doubtful whether the Babe

Ruth League will get to play any of its regular-season under the lights, but all star and exhibition games will be scheduled to give the boys a chance at night games.

A X Y D L B A A X R

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Petitioners Ask School Property Zoned for Homes

Second Auction Sale Scheduled For Sept. 6

A petition asking that the old East Side school property, Columbus Ave. and Willard St., be rezoned for residential purposes has been filed with the city's Zoning Board of Appeals.

The petition is signed by 33 residents and property owners in the area adjoining the school grounds.

The Washington C. H. Board of Education is seeking to sell the property which has been abandoned because of the near-completion of a new East Side school at Elm and Willard Sts.

Board members joined with two prospective buyers in asking more than a month ago that the tract be rezoned for commercial purposes, but the request was denied by the Zoning Board when neighboring property owners protested.

OFFERED at auction July 19, the board received a bid of $15,500 although a Columbus developer had said that he would start the bidding at $30,000 if the tract could be rezoned so that he could construct a supermarket on the site.

The board declined to accept the $15,000 bid and will offer the property at public sale again on Sept. 6. If bids are not regarded as acceptable, the board may then sell the property at private sale.

The Zoning Board's action left the grounds in a "special" classification which is neither commercial nor residential.

'Helldrivers' Forfeit Bonds in Court Here

Two members of the Helldrivers, an automobile daredevil act, who appeared at the Fayette County Fair forfeited bonds in Municipal Court Tuesday.

Tommy Peterson, 23, Brooklyn, and Harris G. Jorgensen, 23, E. Rutherford, N. J., were arrested July 23 by police driving old cars to be used in their show on a public street.

Peterson was charged with making excessive noise — ($20 bond) and failing to display tags ($50 bond). Jorgensen forfeited $50 bond on a charge of failure to display tags.

Their court appearance had been continued until Tuesday. Neither showed up for hearing.

Blanket Weather On Way Out, but No Rain in Sight

Did you have trouble pulling out of the sack this morning?

Others shared your unwillingness to leave the shelter of that unaccustomed blanket.

The sleeping weather was ideal — with an early morning low of 53. That was three degrees below Sunday night's minimum. Monday's high was a pleasant 75.

The skies should remain blue for another day or two, although there will be a scattering of fair weather clouds.

There'll be a warming trend, however, and that may usher in another shower period. High on this date last year was a sizzling 93.

Accident Victim Said 'Improved'

Miss Esther Marting, 23, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Marting Sr., Route 3, was reported in "fair" condition by Memorial Hospital Tuesday morning.

Miss Marting was severely injured in an automobile-truck collision Saturday evening in front of Herb's Drive Inn. She suffered severe lacerations of the scalp, face and legs and fractured ribs.

Her father said that her condition is improved and that she rested well Monday night.

Central Ohio Missile Base To Be Ready in 1½-2 Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon officials estimated today that ready-to-fire Nike missiles will be installed to protect central Ohio in 1½ to two years.

The huge anti-aircraft weapons—equipped to blast off with atomic or conventional warheads—are scheduled for two sites—one in Pickaway County and the other in Fairfield County near Columbus.

The missiles will be of the new, long-range Hercules type and will defend Columbus, Lockbourne Air Force Base near Columbus, and outlying communities.

Just what Ohio area is considered defensible by these Nikes is a secret. However, there has been speculation that the Nike Hercules can hit an airplane 75 miles away from the launching pad.

At this stage, an Army officer told a reporter, surveying operations are about to begin to find appropriate sites for the Nikes in Pickaway and Fairfield counties. This, he said, will be done by Army engineers working with air defense personnel.

The Army's land requirements in each of these counties will be as follows:

A nine-acre plot for the control site—where the missiles are tracked by radar and fired, either from a mobile van-trailer or a control building.

A 27-acre tract for the launching area—where the Nikes themselves will be installed. How many again is secret.

A battery of Nikes consists of three sections of four launchers. That would be 12 missiles capable of being fired at one time.

Finally, a 77-acre plot in which the Army would obtain easements.

This means that the ownership of the property does not change hands, but the Army would be able to restrict the land's use to such things as grazing. No buildings would be permitted.

Reason for the easements is to give the Army a clear view for its line of sight in firing the missiles.

Finding appropriate places for the central Ohio missiles should not be too difficult a task, the Army officer said, if past experience can be trusted as a guide.

"Wherever possible," he said, "we prefer to use federal or state property. We hold purchases of private property to a minimum."

"Even in the case of buying private property, we have had little difficulty in agreeing on a price with the owner."

Reminded that in some cases—namely Cleveland—there have been complaints from people in the area objecting to having missiles in their neighborhood, the officer replied: "We've had very few complaints—really."

One thing the Army has done to forestall complaints of this type has been to put the missiles underground and out of sight.

The missiles will be manned at each site, after installation, by 100 soldiers. Under a new plan, these personnel ultimately will nearly all be National Guardsmen.

The Army spokesman said this will mean that at some future date about 500 Ohio guardsmen will be sent to training school at Fort Bliss, Tex., near El Paso.

There they will learn how to fire the Nikes, not only at Columbus but at similar installations around Cleveland and Cincinnati.

HILLSBORO — Traffic on U. S. 50 west of Rainsboro has been reopened with completion of an all-steel beam bridge over Puncheon run, a half mile west of the village, replacing a span washed out by heavy rains Aug. 2.

Although the new 40-foot bridge is considered temporary, a highway department spokesman said it is substantial enough to serve for 25 years. It will be replaced by a permanent structure.

The rush job was completed by working 10 days on 10-hour shifts, six days a week. Division 9 and Highland county crews did the emergency job.

Traffic had been detoured over Routes 28 and 62.

Work is underway on replacing a bridge on Route 138, two miles southwest of Greenfield, and a span on Route 506, a half mile west of Carmel.
